

Media Advisory
October 21, 2010
U.S. Embassy, Georgetown

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Guyanese-Americans from Continuing Promise to Meet Families at Corentyne School

The USS Iwo Jima is sending all four Guyanese-American service members ashore tomorrow (Oct. 22) to the Central Corentyne School to meet their families – some for the first time in years – and to meet the press. Media representatives are invited to be there at 10 a.m.

Four Continuing Promise 2010 (CP10) U.S. service members with family members who live in Guyana are listed here:

Marine Cpl. John Charles Eversley II, Navy First Class Petty Officer Kurt Powdar, Petty Officer Third Class Daniel Singh, and Army Capt. Devicka Sahadeo all currently support Continuing Promise 2010 – Partnership of the Americas – a U.S. Southern Command (USSOUTHCOM) and Commander, Fourth Fleet/Navy Southern Command (C4F/NAVSOUTH) Humanitarian Civic Assistance (HCA) mission.

###